ARTICLE 1 – RECOGNITION

Section 1. The Employer hereby recognizes the Union as the exclusive representative for collective negotiations concerning the negotiable terms and conditions of employment for all permanent employees at the address as listed in Appendix 1.

Section 2. The Employer shall not abridge, add to, or change any section of this Agreement, except for any changes reached by mutual agreement, and the Employer shall not enter into any separate agreements, covenants or contracts with any individual who is part of the bargaining unit, which would abridge, add to, or change this Agreement.

Section 3. Excluded from the bargaining unit shall be managers, confidential and clerical employees, professional employees, supervisors, and guards as defined in the National Labor Relations Act.

ARTICLE 2 - AFTER-ACQUIRED PROVISION

This Agreement shall, in the circumstances detailed below, apply to facilities and institutions where the Employer is engaged to provide services and which the parties have mutually agreed to provide these provisions. Such accounts are identified as "Recognition Accounts".

Section 1. Coverage Extended to New Units. When a majority of eligible employees performing work covered by this Agreement for the Employer at a Recognition Account have executed cards authorizing the union to represent them as their collective bargaining agent, then the Employer shall recognize the Union and such employees shall be automatically covered by this Agreement.

Section 2. Coverage Extended to Accretions to the Current Operation. Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, the provisions of this Agreement shall be applied without evidence of union representation of the employees involved to all subsequent additions to and expansions of current operations which adjoin and are controlled and utilized as part of the current operation.

Section 3. Coverage Not To Be Extended in Certain Situations. This Agreement shall not apply to an operation of the Employer in any of the following circumstances: (a) If the operation is not a Recognition Account; (b) If the employees are covered by a collective bargaining agreement with another union; (c) If the employees at the Recognition Account have determined not to designate the Union as their collective bargaining agent.

Section 4. The Employer waives its right to file a petition with the National Labor Relations Board for an election in connection with any demands for recognition provided for in this Agreement. The Union and the Employer will not file any charges with the NLRB in connection with any act or omission occurring within the context of this Agreement; arbitration as defined under the grievance and arbitration article shall be the exclusive remedy.

ARTICLE 3 - PARTNERSHIP GOALS & JOINT LABOR MANAGEMENT COMMITTEES

Section 1. – Partnership Goals: The Employer and the Union agree that job security for the employees is best assured by growth of the business and that growth of the business is dependent on increased teamwork and productivity aimed at meeting the competitive challenges in the marketplace. The parties further agree that the most effective way of accomplishing those goals is through labor-management cooperation and a partnership between the Employer, the employees and the Union. The parties also believe that employee involvement and participation in improving the quality of their jobs and the growth of the business is an important goal of the Employer and the Union, as is building trust and improving communication between management and the employees. Toward those goals and objectives, the parties have agreed to create Site and Regional Joint Labor Management Committees, (JLMC).

Section 2. – Site JLMC: The Employer and the Union agree there shall be a Site Joint Labor Management Committee consisting of no more than 3 individuals from each party. The names of the committee members shall be submitted by each party to the other, in writing. Meetings will be held at mutually agreeable times and places so as to apprise the other of problems, concerns and suggestions related to the operation, working conditions and the labor agreement, all with the aim of promoting better understanding between the parties. Meetings will be held no less often than quarterly. A written agenda shall be established for each meeting. Employees assigned to the Site JLMC shall be paid their regular hourly rate for the time spent as a committee member on the JLMC.

Such meetings shall not be construed as opening the Agreement for negotiations nor shall such meeting be considered as a step in the grievance procedure. No rights either party has under the Grievance and Arbitration procedure or any other Article of the Agreement shall be waived by utilizing the Site JLMC including the exercise of management's rights by the Employer not to conflict with the Agreement.

The findings from the Site JLMC shall be submitted to the Regional JLMC for review. The Site JLMC is not empowered to alter, amend or change the terms and conditions of the labor Agreement in any way.

Section 3. – Regional Joint Labor Management Committees: The Regional JLMC shall consist of a senior union official designated by the President of the Union and employee delegates selected by the union from several of the sites covered by the Labor Agreement and by the President of the Employer or someone designated by him, by a senior labor relations representative of the Employer, and by several of the sites covered by the collective bargaining Agreement. The full Regional JLM Committee shall consist of no more than 10 people.

This Regional JLMC shall meet quarterly. The purpose of the Regional JLMC shall be two fold:

1. To review any specific issues that have been presented to it by Site JLMC's in the Sector; and
2. To increase teamwork; improve communications; build trust between the parties and to create and advance the goals of the partnership as described in Section 1 above.

If necessary, the Regional JLMC shall be empowered to create a Joint Study Team, (JST), who shall meet on an as-needed basis to focus on matters of interest and importance to the parties.

Section 4. Any agreement reached by the Regional JLMC to alter, change or amend the Labor Agreement will become final and may be implemented only after it is agreed to in writing by both the President of the Union and the Vice President of Labor Relations of the Employer.

Section 5. All participants on the Site or Regional Joint Labor Management Committees may be trained in interest-based problem solving before they may serve on said committees.

Section 6. The parties may jointly agree to have the Joint Labor Management Committee meetings facilitated.

ARTICLE 4 – RESPECT AND DIGNITY

The Employer and Union agree that each employee and supervisory representative of the Employer shall be treated with dignity and respect. Verbal abuse, threats or harassment by employees, managers, representatives of the union, or supervisors towards each other will not be tolerated. Discipline shall be handled in a professional manner.

ARTICLE 5 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 1. The term "Grievance" as used herein means any alleged violation, misinterpretation, or misapplication of this Agreement, and may be raised by an individual, group of individuals covered by this Agreement, or the Union on behalf of an individual or group of individuals covered by this Agreement. The claims covered by this Grievance and Arbitration Procedure include, but are not limited to, claims covered by the National Labor Relations Act and claims alleging a unilateral change in the terms and conditions of employment.

Section 2. The parties agree that grievances must be processed and resolved as rapidly as possible. The number of days indicated at each step of the grievance procedure shall be considered maximum and every effort should be made to expedite the process. Failure on the part of management to respond within the time limits shall result in a grievance being automatically moved to the next step. The time limitations may be extended on a case-by-case basis by mutual agreement. Such extensions shall be in writing.

Section 3. The following constitutes the exclusive method for resolving grievances between the parties under this Agreement, unless any step is waived or modified, in writing, by mutual consent of the Employer and the Union. Grievances involving suspensions or terminations will proceed in accordance with Step Two.

Step One:

Any employee believing he/she has suffered a grievance, shall, with the assistance of a union representative, discuss the matter with his or her immediate supervisor. In order to be a legitimate grievance, the issue must be discussed within 7 working days of its occurrence or when the grievant would have reasonably known of the violation. The immediate supervisor shall give an oral reply within 5 working day of submission of the Grievance.

Step Two:

If the Grievance is not resolved after Step 1, then within 5 working days of the answer, the Grievance shall be reduced to writing and provided to the General Manager. The written Grievance should list the specific provision(s) of this Agreement alleged to have been violated and remedy sought. Within 5 working days of the Grievance being filed in writing, a meeting shall occur between the General Manager, the Chief Shop Steward and the grievant in an effort to resolve the Grievance. The General Manager shall provide a written response within 5 working days of the meeting.

Step Three:

In the event that the Grievance cannot be settled in Step Two, the written Grievance may be appealed by the WRC Grievance Representative or designee of the Union to the District Manager or his/her designee within 10 calendar days after the written decision of the General Manager was received. The appeal shall be in writing. The parties shall meet within 10 calendar days in an effort to resolve the Grievance. The Vice President shall provide a written response within 10 calendar days of the meeting.

If the Grievance is not resolved after the procedures in Step Three have been completed, the parties, by mutual agreement, may refer the matter to non-binding mediation. A Grievance Mediation shall be held within 30 calendar days of the written request. The Grievance Mediation shall consist of at least 1 Employer representative and at least 1 Union representative plus a neutral mediator who shall act as Chairman and mediate the dispute in an attempt to have the parties reach a settlement. In the event the Employer and the Union cannot agree upon a mediator, either or both parties may apply to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) to submit a list of 5 names. Each party shall alternate in striking the list, beginning with the Employer on the first occurrence. The person whose name is not stricken shall be the mediator. Such procedure shall apply in each case. Mediation of grievances shall be governed by the following rules:

1. The grievant shall have the right to be present at the Grievance Mediation;
2. Each party shall have 1 principal spokesperson;
3. Outside attorneys shall not participate in Grievance Mediation;
4. Any documents presented to the mediator shall be returned to the respective parties at the conclusion of the hearing;
5. Proceedings shall be informal in nature and are non-binding on the parties;
6. Rules of Evidence shall not apply and no formal record of the Grievance Mediation shall be made;
7. The mediator shall have the authority to meet separately with any person or persons but will not have the authority to compel a resolution of the grievance;
8. If no settlement is reached, the mediator shall provide the parties with a written advisory decision within 24 hours of the mediation;
9. The mediator shall state the grounds for his/her advisory decision;
10. The Grievance Mediation procedure shall have no power to alter or amend the terms of this Agreement;
11. The cost of the mediator, if any, shall be split equally between the Employer and the Union.

In the event that a grievance which has been mediated subsequently goes to arbitration, no person serving as a mediator between the parties may serve as an arbitrator. Nothing said or done by the mediator may be referred to at arbitration. Nothing said or done by either party for the first time in the mediation hearing may be used against them at arbitration.

Step Four:

If the Grievance cannot be satisfactorily adjusted at Step Three, the matter may be referred by the Union, (or the Employer in the case of an Employer grievance), for final decision and determination to an impartial arbitrator. The parties may agree to a panel of arbitrators to hear Step Four grievances. If the parties are unable to mutually agree upon an arbitrator, a request for arbitration shall be filed in writing with the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) requesting a panel of 7 arbitrators no later than 30 calendar days following the receipt of written Step 3 answer or the receipt of the written decision from the mediator as provided for in Step 3, paragraph 2 above.

The parties shall select an arbitrator from the FMCS panel by alternately striking names (grieving party shall strike first) until one name remains who shall be the "selected" arbitrator. The arbitrator selected through the above request for arbitration filing process shall hold a hearing promptly and shall issue a written decision not later than 30 calendar days from date of the close of the hearings or, if oral hearings have been waived, then from the date on which the written final statements and proofs on issues were submitted. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties. The arbitrator shall be bound and governed by the provisions of this Agreement and the arbitrator shall be limited to the interpretation of the terms set forth in the Agreement.

Costs of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties. Any other expenses incurred, including but not limited to the presentation of witnesses, shall be paid by the party incurring same.

Section 4: Training. For purposes of implementing the procedure set forth in this Article, the parties may apply to a joint training program in grievance mediation to be conducted by the FMCS under the sponsorship of the Joint Labor Management Team.

Section 5. The Employer may submit a grievance to the Union under the provisions of this Article within 10 calendar days after the event giving rise to the grievance has occurred. Such grievance shall be filed directly with the Union in writing at Step Three. The Union shall apply a written answer to the grievance within 10 calendar days of the Step Three meeting or teleconference. If such grievance is not settled, it may be submitted to mediation by mutual agreement or directly to arbitration.

for, or which may result in, the discharge, suspension or other disciplinary action with respect to the employee. In such cases, another bargaining unit person of the employee's choosing shall be asked to sit in as a witness. If it is not a Section 4 situation, the discipline shall be delayed until the employee's next shift.

Such documents more than 12 months old may only be used as evidence that an employee was aware of a rule or policy, or to show past corrective measures taken, or as evidence of a pattern of behavior. Copies of all formal written discipline shall be provided to the Chief Shop Steward.

Section 4. At the final step of progressive discipline, or in the event of a single serious incident or rule violation, the employee shall be suspended pending investigation and with the intention to terminate. The Union shall be given notice of such suspension within 3 work days. The final disposition of the matter shall be made within 5 work days (Saturday and Sunday excluded), and notice of disposition shall be sent to the Union. The Employer shall deduct, from the gross wages or salary of each employee who voluntarily executes the political action committee (PAC) payroll deduction authorization form that is Appendix 2 to this Agreement, the contributions at the frequency of deduction so authorized on that form, and remit those contributions to the Union at the same time that the Employer remits to the Union the Union dues that are separately voluntarily authorized by employees to be deducted from their gross wages or salaries and remitted to the Union pursuant to this Article. The Employer may remit PAC contributions and Union dues to the Union by a single check or wire transfer, or by separate checks or wire transfers. With each PAC contribution remittance the Employer shall provide the Union with a written itemization setting forth as to each contributing employee his or her name, address, occupation, rate of PAC payroll deduction by the payroll or other applicable period, and contribution amount. The parties acknowledge that the Employer's costs of administration of this PAC payroll deduction have been taken into account by the parties in their negotiation of this Agreement and have been incorporated in the wage, salary and benefits provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 20 – SHOP STEWARDS AND VISITATION

Section 3. The Union, through its representatives, shall have access and the right to visit working areas in the unit where employees covered by this Agreement are assigned during working hours. However, the Union agrees that it shall not interfere with any working operations and shall contact the General Manager or his/her designee upon arrival. The Union agrees to make reasonable efforts to schedule visits in advance.

ARTICLE 21 – SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS

ARTICLE 22 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Section 1. Except as expressly modified by a specific provision of this Agreement, all the authority, rights and powers which the Employer had prior to the signing of this Agreement are retained by the Employer and remain exclusively and without limitation the rights of management. Only express modifications contained in specific provisions of this Agreement constitute limitations upon such authority, rights and powers.

Section 2. Examples of the authority, rights and powers which are hereby vested in the Employer, with only such modification as is expressly stated in a specific provision of this Agreement, include, but are not limited to, the following: The right to schedule, adjust, and assign work and hours of employees; to assign and require overtime work; to determine production requirements and the methods by which such production shall be accomplished; to hire, promote, transfer, reclassify, suspend, discipline, demote, layoff or discharge employees; to determine the work to be done by the Employer's employees; to determine the size of the work force and the amounts and kinds of supervision necessary; to temporarily or permanently shut down its entire operation or a portion thereof; to temporarily or permanently move its entire operation or a portion thereof to another location(s); to establish or change rules and safety standards; to establish or change work standards; to establish or change standards of quality and quantity of work; and to determine the creation, continuance, termination, change or consolidation of jobs or of partial or total operations (including discontinuance of their performance by Company employees). If the Employer does not exercise rights reserved to it or if it exercises such rights in a particular way, it shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to exercise such rights or of the right to exercise such rights in other ways not in conflict with the express terms of this Agreement.

Section 3. The Employer retains the right to subcontract out all of or any part of its operation as the dictates of business demand or if the Employer in its discretion deems it necessary as long as it does not directly displace or result in the layoff of a regular employee except as a result of cause beyond the control of the Employer.

ARTICLE 23 – NO STRIKE/NO LOCKOUT

Section 1. The Union and its members employed by the Employer, individually or collectively, will not, during the life of this Agreement, encourage, cause or take part in any strike, work stoppage, work interruption, work interference, slowdown, sabotage of Company production or processes, sympathy strike, picketing or boycott against the Employer. The Employer will not engage in a lockout during the term of this Agreement.

Section 2. Family/Employment Status Changes: After the initial open enrollment period employees may only change their elections once each calendar year. This open enrollment period is usually during the month of November, with an effective date of change as January 1st. The provisions of these elections and the bi-weekly payroll deduction are subject to the applicable plan descriptions and IRS regulations.

Generally, once benefit selections are made, they remain in effect for the rest of the plan year (January 1 – December 31). However, employees may change some of their choices during the year if they have a family or employment status change and notify the Employer in writing within 30 days of the change. A family/employment status change, (as currently defined by the Internal Revenue Service), includes:

1. Marriage, divorce or legal separation, (there must be a court order granting the divorce or legal separation).
2. Death of spouse or other dependent.
3. Birth or legal adoption of a child.

Section 3. Upon termination of employment, all insurance coverage shall cease immediately with the following exceptions:

1. For employees taking leaves of absence described in Article 12, the Employer will continue insurance coverage until the end of the month in which the leave commences provided that the employee has made all premium co-payments. If a leave extends longer than the initial month, insurance coverage is governed by COBRA. Life insurance will continue for the full period of the leave.
2. For employees on union leave, see Article 12, Section 4. Life insurance will continue for the full period of the leave.
3. If an employee is granted an unpaid leave of absence in accordance with the FMLA, coverage shall continue for up to 12 weeks, provided all regularly required premium contributions are received. Life insurance will continue for the full period of the leave.

Section 4. An open enrollment period shall be held annually in November. Enrollment forms specific to this site shall be made available to all eligible employees during the enrollment period. Every eligible employee must complete enrollment each year in November to ensure up to date benefit selection, including beneficiary designation.

Section 5. The Union and the Company agree to form a Joint Study Team comprised of representatives of both parties to assist in the development of a joint national health insurance program that broadens access to health care for employees and their families and contains costs. The Joint Study Team shall have access to health insurance experts, actuaries and other professionals. The Joint Study Team will have until September 30, 2006 to develop a program. If the parties agree on a program, it shall be implemented at this facility beginning on January 1, 2007, or as the parties otherwise agree, for the duration of the collective bargaining agreement.

Section 6. In the event that the Joint Study Team provided for in Section 5 does not reach an agreement on a joint health insurance program, the following shall apply for calendar years 2007 - 2010:

1. Insurance premium costs shall be split as described in Section 1 of this Article.
2. If the Employer seeks to increase the employee share of the premium costs above that provided for in Section 1, then the Employer can, upon written notice to the Union, seek to negotiate modifications in the health insurance provisions of this Agreement, including consideration of plan design changes or other methods of cost containment.
3. If the Union and the Employer cannot agree on any modifications pursuant to paragraph B within 6 months, then the Employer may demand "interest" arbitration over the terms of the health insurance provisions of the Agreement for its remaining term. The arbitrator shall be selected by mutual agreement of the parties or, if the parties are unable to mutually agree, by alternately striking names from a panel of arbitrators requested from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. The arbitrator shall have the authority to issue an award containing the health insurance provisions of the Agreement for the balance of its term, and shall have authority to have the award be effective, to the extent feasible, retroactive to January 1 of the 2007 calendar year. In issuing his or her award, the arbitrator may take into account the following factors, among others that he or she may consider pertinent: the impact on the employer of health insurance inflation; the wage and pension increases provided for in the collective bargaining agreement; the effect of increased premium costs on bargaining unit employee utilization of health insurance; the availability of cost containment methods or plan design alternatives; industry standards, and the general economic environment. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding and shall not be subject to judicial review.

ARTICLE 26 – PENSION/401K

Section 1. The Employer shall become a participating employer of the UNITE HERE Workers Pension Fund, National Plan effective July 1, 2006. Section 2. Employees, upon completion of their probation period, may participate in the Employer's 401(k) program per the terms of the plan.

ARTICLE 27 – HOURS OF WORK

Section 1. The normal work week shall consist of 40 hours in 5 days. The text in this Article shall not establish a guaranteed number of days to be worked in a week or the hours to be worked in a day, although the Employer will provide as many full-time shifts as practicable, consistent with its business needs.

Section 2. The normal workday may be 8 hours as determined by the Employer to meet operational needs. Start times for employees may vary and may be staggered to provide for flexible and efficient operations.

Section 3. Weekly work schedules shall be posted by noon on Monday to begin that Friday for the following two weeks.

Section 4. All employees covered by this Agreement will be permitted to take one 15-minute paid break for each 4 hours worked. Breaks will be scheduled by the manager. Employees who work 5 or more hours in a day shall receive a one-half hour unpaid meal break to be scheduled by the manager or designee. Employees who work through their breaks with management approval shall be paid for all time worked.

Section 5. Employees shall be eligible for one free wholesome meal for the day worked in conjunction with company procedure. Company procedure shall be defined as whatever meals the company is preparing for its clients during that shift and does not include left overs. All meals must be consumed on premises in designated areas. The meal benefit is intended for the use of employees only, and may only be applied to the day earned.

ARTICLE 28 – OVERTIME AND PREMIUM PAY

Section 1. Employees performing work in excess of 40 hours per week shall be compensated at the rate of time and one-half their regular pay.

If there are insufficient volunteers, the employer may require employees in the classification to work in inverse seniority order.

Section 3. Overtime shall be paid in the pay cycle following that in which the overtime is worked.

Section 4. Whenever possible, overtime scheduled shall be posted the day before such overtime is scheduled. Unscheduled overtime, may at times be mandatory for all employees in a classification and will be assigned to the employees in the classification where the work has to be performed. Employees working overtime shall be permitted to make such necessary notification to their homes and families.

Section 5. Employees shall be expected to work a reasonable amount of overtime when requested.

Section 6. No employee shall work overtime unless such overtime work has been authorized in advance by his/her supervisor. Overtime shall be verified in writing by the Supervisor on the employee's time record._

ARTICLE 29 – JURY DUTY

When a member of the bargaining unit is summoned for jury duty and presents a jury summons, the Employer shall grant such employee time off for jury duty and will pay the employee the difference between his/her jury duty pay and the regular straight time hourly rate for the regularly scheduled hours of work for up to 20 work days in any calendar year.

ARTICLE 30 – BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

In the case of the death of a parent or legal guardian, brother, sister, husband, wife, domestic partner, child or step child, mother-in-law or father-in-law, grandparent or grandchild or a relative who is a member of the immediate household of the employee, members of the bargaining unit who have completed probation will be excused without loss of pay from day of the death to the day after the funeral, inclusive, provided the absence does not exceed 3 working days. Where travel distances exceed 250 miles, the employee shall be granted up to 2 additional days off, without pay, for travel or to attend to other funeral related matters. The Employer may request reasonable verification.

ARTICLE 31 – REPORT IN PAY

Section 1. Employees who report to work without having been notified that the operation is closed, shall be guaranteed either one-half their scheduled hours or pay in lieu thereof.

Section 2. Once employees begin their scheduled shift, they shall be paid for all hours worked, or one-half the hours in their regular shift, whichever is greater. When worked planned for the facility has been completed, the Employer may canvass employees by seniority to determine if there are volunteers to leave early in lieu of receiving the report in pay guaranteed by this Section. The Employer shall not place undue pressure on employees to volunteer. This section shall not apply in cases of fire, flood, natural disaster, utilities failure, or an Act of God.

Section 3. The decision whether an employee shall be excused or shall work will be at the discretion of management and shall be made on the basis of seniority.

Section 4. Employees called in from home to work extra time outside their regular hours, shall be guaranteed a minimum of 4 hours work or the pay equivalent thereto.

ARTICLE 32 - CHANGES IN HOURS

Section 1. In the event that the scheduled hours for a given classification are reduced, then the least senior employee in a given classification involved shall be affected first and so on. By mutual consent of the parties, all employees in a given classification involved shall be affected equally (i.e., hourly time shall be reduced in a like amount for each employee).

Section 2. In the event that the scheduled hours for a given classification are increased, then the most senior employee in a given classification involved shall be affected first and so on. By mutual consent of the parties, all employees in a given classification shall be affected equally (i.e. hourly time shall be increased in a like amount for each employee).

ARTICLE 33 – Wellness Days (Holidays and Sick Days)

Section 1. There shall be two types of Wellness Days: Accrued Days and Holidays.

Section 2. Accrued Wellness Days.

a) Full-time employees (regularly working 30 or more hours per week) will begin to earn wellness days on the first full month after hire, subject to the perfect attendance system outlined in Section 2 (c). New employees may begin to use wellness days after they have completed probation.

b) Eligible employees will earn one-half (½) day of “wellness” for each month of perfect attendance. Wellness days can be taken in one-half ½ day or one (1) day increments. Payment shall be based on an individual employee’s regularly scheduled hours and regular rate of pay.

c) Perfect Attendance:

1. Any unscheduled absence (excused or unexcused) will disqualify the associate from earning his/her ½ day for the month. An unscheduled absence is defined as any absence that has not been requested and approved 24 hours in advance.

2. More than two (2) unscheduled incidents of tardies or leave earlies, if not excused per Section 2, c)1 above in any 1-month period will disqualify the associate from earning wellness for the month. Failure to attend a mandatory meeting will count as one (1) incident of tardy or one (1) leave-early.

3. If an associate is absent from work and does not follow reasonable call-in procedures, the associate will not be paid wellness pay for that absence and will not earn another ½ day of wellness pay for that month.

4. Exceptions that will not result in disqualification include vacations, jury duty, funeral leave, FMLA leave, union leave, or approved wellness days scheduled in advance.

5. Employees will receive payment for any un-used wellness hours in the last pay check of the state fiscal year.

Section 3. Holidays:

a) All regular full-time employees of the bargaining unit shall be entitled to holidays each year, as enumerated in Appendix 1.

b) Employees shall be eligible for holiday pay upon completion of their probationary period. Employees must work their last scheduled shift prior to the holiday and their last scheduled shift after the holiday.

c) If an employee works a holiday they will be paid time and one half for the hours worked on the holiday and the holiday hours will be available as time off to be scheduled per the vacation article (Article 35 Section 2).

d) If an employee is not scheduled to work on the holiday, the holiday hours will be available as time off to be scheduled per the vacation article (Article 35 Section 2).

Section 4. Accrual Reports

The Employer shall provide employees with a report of their earned wellness days and any holidays which may be scheduled later at a minimum of once a month.

ARTICLE 34 - VACATION

Section 1. All full-time employees who have completed one year service shall be eligible for paid vacation. Employees shall be awarded vacation days on July 1 of each year based on the following formula:

Completed Years of Service	Weeks Vacation
----------------------------	----------------

1 year	1 week
2 years	2 weeks
8 or more years	3 weeks

Section 2. The following guidelines apply to the use of vacation:

1. Vacation may be scheduled at any time of the year. Vacation requests must be presented to the General Manger, in writing, 2 weeks in advance and must be approved before any vacation time can be taken. The General Manager will notify the employee within one week if the vacation request has been approved or denied. Vacations will be scheduled based on seniority.
2. Vacation cannot be carried over from year to year. Once scheduled by the Employee and approved by the Employer, a vacation shall not be canceled.
3. Vacation days shall be paid at the employee's regular rate of pay multiplied by their regularly scheduled hours.
4. Current and accrued vacation shall be paid out at the termination of employment provided a two-week notice has been given.
5. Vacation allotment will be reduced proportionately for time spent on leaves of absences of three (3) months or more.

Section 3. Accrual Reports

The Employer shall provide employees with a report of their vacation at a minimum of once a month.

ARTICLE 35 – UNIFORMS

The Employer shall supply employees with uniforms which must be worn every day as described in the Appendix. Uniforms will be replaced one-for-one on an as-needed basis. Employees are required to wear and provide their own slip resistant shoes. Employees must wear other clothing and footwear as determined by the employer.

ARTICLE 36 – TRAVEL ALLOWANCE

Any employee who is required to utilize their own vehicle, or is requested to perform work at another location, shall receive a mileage allowance at the rate of the prevailing IRS rate in effect, or be reimbursed the appropriate fee for use of public transportation, if necessary.

ARTICLE 37 - TRANSLATION/COPYING OF THE CONTRACT

The Union will pay to have this Agreement translated into languages agreed upon by the parties. The Employer will pay to have this Agreement printed, copied and distributed to all employees.

ARTICLE 38 – COMPLETE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, reached as a result of collective bargaining, represents the full and complete agreement between the parties and supersedes all previous agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties.

ARTICLE 39 – SEPARABILITY AND SAVINGS

Section 1. If any provision of this Agreement or any application of this Agreement to any employee or group of employees is held invalid by operation of law or by a Court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be inoperative but all other provisions shall not be affected thereby and shall continue in full force and effect.

Section 2. The parties agree to meet promptly to discuss the impact of the affected text in Section 1 above and to create new text as may be needed. Such discussions shall not “open” the Agreement during its term.

ARTICLE 40 – TERM AND RENEWAL

Section 1. This Agreement shall be in full force and effect as of April 19, 2006 and shall be in effect up to and including April 18, 2011. It is further agreed that neither the Employer nor the Union shall engage in a strike or lockout after the termination of this Agreement until at least 60 days after notice of intent to negotiate changes was provided to the other party.

Section 2. The parties shall enter into a written reaffirmation agreement 34 months after the effective date of this Agreement, if, in light of the conditions then existing, both parties believe it is appropriate to do so. The reaffirmation agreement shall reaffirm the terms of this Agreement for the balance of the duration of this Agreement. The reaffirmation procedure does not constitute a re-opener of this Agreement.

Section 3. If the Agreement terminates in accordance with Section 1 of this Article before the parties reach agreement on the terms of a successor collective bargaining agreement, there shall be a “Cooling-Off Period” during which neither party may engage in strikes, lockout, picketing, unilateral changes in the Agreement, or other economic weapons. This Agreement shall be extended for the duration of the Cooling-Off Period. During the Cooling-Off Period, the Employer and the Union will make every reasonable effort to negotiate and agree upon a successor collective bargaining agreement. The Cooling-Off Period shall be for a minimum of 60 days, unless extended by mutual agreement of the parties. Economic improvements contained in a successor agreement that become effective upon the effective date of the successor agreement shall be retroactive to April 19, 2011 so that the employees do not suffer economic loss due to the Cooling-Off Period, unless the parties otherwise mutually agree.
